Merchants and Citizens to Take Part in Buy at Home Week

Park Is Scene of Ball Program Next Sunday

Postponed last week-end by rain, the second annual Albany Baseball Day will be presented Sunday at University Park with four exciting games, many contests and a plentiful supply of free refreshments.

This is the promise of the Recreation Department, which is staging the event made possible by the cooperation and support of Albany merchants. A hard-working committee, composed of Bill Green, Edwin S. Howell, Kelly Bryan, Al Collins, Charles Ham, Louis Griffith, Jake Nora and George Sutton, is in charge of the affair that is expected to draw more than 3000 persons to the park on Buchanan Street.

Softball games open the list of activities. At 2 o. m. two games will be played, between the Marin Dads and the High Dads, the Recreation Leaders and the Oakland Central Creamery.

At noon Coach Kelly Bryan's team of former Albany High players will meet with a varsity team from St. Mary's High, coached by Al Collins. Fanned by the friendly rivalry between the two local schools, this tilt should develop into a thrilling one.

Field events for players will provide the next attraction of the day, with contestants vying for the many valuable awards donated by Albany firms and citizens. Hitting, running and other events are to be held.

This fine program will reach its climax at 2 o'clock, at which time Louis Griffith's Braun Mattress team faces the formidable Albany Merchants managed by Louis Nora.

Partisan fans of the two local lines are certain to find this game much to their liking. Rumor has it that the rival managers and players have been "pointed" for this annual contest, each fully determined to annex the City Championship in decisive fashion.

Last-minute reports from the two managers reveal that both teams are in the shape. This should prove good news for the rabid supporters of each who are eagerly awaiting the start of hostilities.

Music will be furnished throughout the day by the youthful Albany Playband Orchestra. Handling of the crowd and distribution of refreshments will be in charge of the personnel of the Recreation Department.

Pioneer Couple Is Greeted on 48th Anniversary

Tribute to the 48 years of wedded life that have been enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Axel L. Lindquist, 955 Stannage Avenue, was paid Sunday by the couple's three sons and three daughters and their respective families. The dinner party and re-union, held at Drake's, was attended by 27.

Telegrams, flowers and letters of congratulation from friends arrived during the celebration for the pioneer Albany couple who made their home more than 30 years ago amid wide expanses of open fields.

Lindquist was a trustee following the election of September 15, 1908 when 71 voters cast affirmative ballots to incorporate as Ocean View. He again served in public office, this time on the School Board, when 32 voters declared for the title of the town should be Albany, in 1909.

He is at present custodian at Marin School, where his faithful services and willingness have endeared him to the pupils and teachers alike.

Dads Plan Dance, Party on Friday

The Marin Dads Club will hold an annual card party and dance in the Marin School auditorium next Friday night, announces Larry Foye, chairman. The excellent orchestra will play for the dancers and many fine awards await the victors who prefer cards.

All adults in the school district are invited to attend. Tickets are available from Foye, his committee, Harold Foye and Ed Litsinger, all from the Marin School.

McCullough In Race for School Post

"At the urgent request of numerous fellow citizens of Albany I am a candidate for the office of School Director," states Robert E. McCullough, 967 Curtis Street, a resident and taxpayer for the past 26 years.

"In entering the race for the office of School Director, I do so as an independent candidate. I am bound by no promise to any individual or group of individuals except by those promises I make to the people of Albany as a whole. If elected I shall work constantly for the improvement of our educational system in Albany, to the end that our children be safeguarded against the teachings of Communistic theories or propaganda contrary to moral facts.

"The danger to our children from the trafficker in drugs and other vicious elements must ever be considered. I shall make recommendations to the Board to protect the children against the possibility of such a danger becoming a reality in Albany.

"I have taken an active part in the work necessary to establish a High School in Albany and assisted in securing approval of the method by which our schools are now financed.

McCullough is a foreman at the California Ink Company and lives with his wife and three children at the above address. A daughter is a student at Marin School.

Health Food Store Opens

Opening of the Rex Bush Health Food Store, 1591 Solano Avenue, is scheduled for Monday morning, announces the owner, Mrs. Rex Bush of 804 Curtis Street. A full line of quality health products will be carried.

A new resident and business woman of the community, Mrs. Bush extends greetings to the people of Albany and solicits their patronage. She has already taken out a membership in the Chamber of Commerce and promises to take an active part in local events.

Mrs. Bush comes to Albany directly from Shanghai, China, where she operated a similar business. The present conflict, she confides, was not taken seriously at first by residents of the city. It was only after the rain of bombs began to take its deadly toll that the horror of the situation dawned upon them. She left the country aboard the U. S. S. Chaumont, after having spent over 20 years there.

Both she and her late husband were engaged in missionary work in China and Japan for a number of years, Mrs. Bush revealed.

Rotarians Hear Talk on Amazon

A trip up the Amazon River was interestingly related to Albany Rotarians and guests Monday noon by Howard Welty, principal of the Oakland Technical High School and well known traveler and speaker. Welty, who recently entertained the local group with a talk on his adventures in Mexico, was introduced by Dr. Martin Walter, chairman of the day.

CLUB TO SEE FILMS

Entertainment at the next meeting of the San Pablo Avenue Sportsmen's Club, next Friday night, will consist of moving pictures of a fishing trip taken by George Vanderbilt and George Givort, entitled "Devil's Playground." The films are to be shown through the courtesy of the Union Oil Company, tells President Jack McCullough.

C. N. LAVERS

Re-election Is Sought by C. N. Lavers

Cecil N. Lavers, incumbent City Attorney, has this week issued a formal announcement of his intention to seek re-election on April 11. He carries the endorsement of the Albany Progress League, has been a resident of this city for 12 years.

In his statement he declares: "In 1926, a recent graduate of the University of California and 23 years of age, I came to Albany with my wife. We purchased a home from Charles MacGregor and took up residence in a city of 5,000 population, so sparsely settled north of Solano Avenue that you could see to the County Line without difficulty.

"Convinced that the young city had a bright future and being young myself, I opened my law office in 1928 two doors from the City Hall, becoming the first attorney to devote his full time to the practice of law in Albany.

"My confidence in Albany's future has been amply justified, for during the past 10 years the population has more than tripled and we now have more than 3400 fine homes. Through the kindness of the people of Albany my practice has been successful. My wife and I now have three children, two daughters and a son. The two girls attend local schools.

"I have taken a keen interest in local affairs and have been named by the people of Albany to the Board of Education, where I served as vice-president for four years, and to the Planning and Zoning Commission for a two-year period.

"Four years ago the people elected me City Attorney and I believe that I have served my city earnestly and well, without political partisanship or political favoritism whatsoever, and to the best of my ability. The fact that I am in the City during the day and that my office is only two doors from the City Hall have proven a real convenience to the various officers, employees and departments of the City government, and to the people of the City as well.

"My past four years as City Attorney have gained for me much valuable experience, which of course will enable me to serve even more efficiently than in the past. If it is the pleasure of the people that I be re-elected I shall continue to serve to the best of my ability."

Among his qualifications Lavers points out that he has studied methods of city management at the University of California under Professor May, a fact receiving mention in municipal corporation periodicals.

His interest in youth, it is revealed, is exemplified in the fact that he was organizer of the Albany Student Nourishment Fund, which now expends upward of $1500 per year for underprivileged students. He is a former director of the Albany Y. M. C. A., a member of the Central Berkeley Albany and Contra Costa County Division of Boy Scouts executive committee and is adult counselor for Knights of Dunamis, fraternal organization composed entirely of Eagle Scouts.

He was a member of the Albany Business Men's Association, forerunner of the present progressive Chamber of Commerce, and is past president of the local Rotary Club. He lives with his family at 1436 Portland Avenue.

Sixth Smoker Of Post Set For Tonight

Climaxing months of work by members of Albany Legion Post No. 292, the sixth annual Smoker of the group will be presented tonight in the Veterans' Memorial Building at 8 o'clock. All who expect seats, however, are urged to be present much earlier.

The warning is given because of the great popularity in American Legion circles of this yearly event by Albany Post. Visitation committees from this city have been touring the State for the past 60 days carrying word of the impending mammoth show to thousands of Legionnaires.

Since the building has a seating capacity of but 750 and a crowd of more than 1000 is expected, hence the warning given above by James Sartain, general chairman.

PROMINENT GUESTS

In addition to local Legion and City officials that have been invited, a number of other honored guests are expected, including Joseph Long, state department commander; James K. Fiske, state department adjutant; Charles McGonigal, assistant adjutant; Elmer Zollner, second area commander and John Beale, tenth district commander. They will be welcomed by Commander Ammon Cook and Mayor O. C. Yenne.

The show is to be in charge of James Muir, known here for previous appearances as master of ceremonies. On the program will be Leonard and Perkova, dancers; Nancy Trow, dancer; Consuelo Gonzales, singer; Maxine Turner, dancer; Dorothy Gray, beauty contest winner; Biggie Carroll, dancer, Carl Lyle, magician; Marie Aster, dancer; Morris and Morris, acrobats; Flo Ash, dancer; Holmes and James, act; Rod, Day and Rita, skaters, and Ken Howard's Band.

LARGE COMMITTEE

Sartain has been aided in the production of the Smoker by the following members:

A. H. Harrison, finance; Walter L. Holland, publicity; Earl M. Hodgkins, manager; A. A. Cook, stage manager; Leon Turnbull, properties; L. E. Carlson, electrician; Peter Schiller effects; Ralph Novell, amusements; Fred Houser, refreshment; Frank Graeber, refreshment; Bartle Rolph, door; A. LeRoy Ford, distinguished guests; J. R. Moore, floor; Howard Hill, prizes; Clarence Finn, printing; Leon Fay, program; George Foley, tickets; Walker Lyon, member admittance; Max Etingoff, advertisement; Charles Holland, checkrooms; Sidney Williams, head usher.

Lutheran Children Prepare Operetta For Group's Fete

"Mother Week and Her Daughters", an operetta in which the characters derive their names from the various days and portray the duties of each, is now being rehearsed under the direction of Mrs. Bertha Janke, wife of the Rev. O. R. Janke. The roles will be taken by Sunday School children, whose ages range from four to 12 years. Mrs. Ruth Elder will accompany the group on the piano.

Death Comes to William Simpson

Death brought to a close an 18-year residence in this city for William J. Simpson, 62, as it occurred last Friday in an Oakland hospital. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Alice Simpson of 617 Adams Street.

Funeral services, held Monday afternoon from the drawing room chapel of the James J. Ellis Company, were conducted by Rev. George G. Saywell and the Knights of Pythias. Interment followed at Sunset View Cemetery.

Mr. Simpson was a member of the International Printers and Assistants Union. He was a native of San Francisco.

Will Improve Key Property

The unsightliness of the Key System right-of-way through this city, in the center of Key Route Boulevard, will be a thing of the past soon, according to plans announced Monday night by the City Council.

A recommendation came from Ernest Blow, president of the Park Planning and Zoning Commission, that action be taken to improve the property through labor obtainable from the Recreation Department and a plan whereby residents and school children could engage in cooperative gardening on the property.

The council referred the project back to the Park Board, the Recreation Department and City Engineer H. I. Dygert, for further study.

A plea by Mrs. Kathe Zahn, 907 Santa Fe Avenue, that this city take steps toward initiating local, State and federal inspection of raw pork, was referred to City Health Doctor Jack L. Stein. Urged by Mrs. Zahn are microscopic tests to discover infected pork, the cause of trichinosis. Several cases of the deadly disease have recently been reported in this region.

Ernest Blow In Campaign For Council

Public announcement of his candidacy for the office of City Councilman at the coming election was made last night by Ernest C. Blow, resident of Albany for over 20 years and present head of the Park, Planning and Zoning Commission. He has already been endorsed by the Albany Progress League.

His statement reads: "Having lived in Albany as a home owner and taxpayer during the past 20 years, I believe my activity in local civic affairs has been but a natural course. Every man who selects a city as his home site, a community in which to rear his children, is naturally interested in the city's growth and willing to aid its welfare.

"My decision to be a candidate for City Council is based on a foresight gleaned during the past score years, particularly at the present time. Vast possibilities face Albany today, and proper direction of governmental affairs should, in the immediate future, reap welcome benefits for home owners.

As head of the Park, Planning and Zoning Commission, I have been in direct touch with property developments and recreational facilities. With the aid of others, I have brought rezoning regulations to the western section of the City which, in time to come, should result in extensive improvements. It is my sincere desire to represent the people as a City Councilman so that I may be in an advantageous position to continue the progressive policies launched by the Park, Planning and Zoning Commission.

"My qualifications are those of long experience in civic problems; an intense interest in solving the taxpayers' complaints; an ambition to assist to the best of my ability, the City which I have chosen as home for my wife and three children. I ask your earnest support on election day, April 11."

Chamber of Commerce Drive To Promote Buying at Home Will Commence on Monday

"Albany Buy at Home Week" Scheduled From March 21 to 26; Parade Tomorrow to Publicize Event

Campaign Backed By Students in Weekly Newsette

The following is reprinted from today's issue of the Albany High School Newsette:

"It is at this time every year that Albany High puts out its annual. Because of the huge cost, it has been found that it was impossible for the school to bear the burden by itself. As a result we have had to solicit advertising from the merchants of Albany.

"These merchants have been more than generous in their response. Last year they bought ads to a total of $250. This year they will buy even more than that.

"This coming week we have a chance to show the merchants that we will cooperate with them as they have cooperated with us. This coming week has been designated as "Buy in Albany Week."

"Merchants throughout the city are cooperating in this huge affair. Many special prices are to be offered, and the week is to be climaxed by a fashion show and parade.

"Back this campaign. The merchants of Albany are the school's best boosters. It would be an extremely good idea if the school were to return this backing by boosting this campaign and by telling their parents about it."

Lodge to Fete N.D.G.W. Aide

Preparatory to the official visit of Mrs. Florence Begley, worthy grand president, which is scheduled for Wednesday evening, March 23, a special meeting was called by Albany Parlor No. 260, N. D. G. W. last Tuesday evening. It took place at the home of the past president, Mrs. Hazlett Taylor, 920 Pomona Avenue, and was held in conjunction with the regular meeting of the sewing club.

During the evening, the names of five prospective members were read and approved. These candidates will be initiated on March 23. They are Mrs. Neil Crowley, Mrs. Ed Ryken, Mrs. Bert Rogers, Mrs. Donald Goss and Mrs. Marguerite Aguayo.

Those present were Mrs. Mae Rutan, Mrs. Daisy Olafson, Mrs. Mildred Johanson, Mrs. Lillian Christenson, Mrs. Laura Isom, Mrs. Nellie Brown Fernald, Mrs. Dorothy Mullins, Mrs. Ethel Hall, deputy grand president, and the Misses Grayce Higgins, Althea Hart, Isabel Diaz and Edith Neal.

The officers of Albany Parlor met last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Olafson on Adams Street to finish making favors for the next meeting.

An announcement was made that the next meeting of the sewing club will be held on April 5 at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Ball on Kains Avenue.

Narcotics Talk Given by Agent

A talk of unusual interest on "Narcotics" by Walter R. Creighton, inspector in the State Division of Narcotic Enforcement, was enjoyed by members of the Acacia Club last Friday night, reports Irving M. Liner, president.

The speaker, who also presented a striking display of opium pipes, was introduced by Lloyd G. Jester, a former associate in the State office and chairman of the program.

The local club's softball team will play Sunday in the Acacia League, made up of East Bay Masonic teams, it was announced. The teams are competing for a splendid silver trophy donated by Liner.

Scheduled as an event to "sell" the merchants and professional people of this city to the residents, "Albany Buy at Home Week" will start Monday throughout the entire community. Sponsored by the Albany Chamber of Commerce for its members, the plan is intended to carry a "buy at home" message to all local citizens.

Special inducements in the way of bargains galore, extra large stocks of quality merchandise and other attractions are already being presented by firms. Buyers are given an added incentive to investigate the possibility of making purchases in Albany and to learn what really fine stores this city boasts.

The occasion will also afford merchants in the Chamber of Commerce an opportunity to analyze themselves and their service to the people of the community, emphasizes Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, president of the organization.

BRINGS RESPONSE

Since announcement of the idea in last week's issue of the Times, a favorable response has been received from all concerned. Residents have revealed an increasing interest and the spirit of cooperation has become even more apparent among local merchants.

Mayor O. C. Yenne has declared: "I am for the movement 100 per cent and want to congratulate the Chamber of Commerce and its members for initiating it. I believe it deserves the consideration and support of the people and merchants of Albany and hope that it will be continued. This is splendid work that is being done by the Chamber."

The organization's roster now includes 66 business and professional members. Latest members are the Rex Bush Health Food Store, 1591 Solano Avenue, and the House of Many Nations, 900 San Pablo Avenue.

PARADE TOMORROW

A spectacular parade tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock will launch "Albany Buy at Home Week". Previously announced for Monday, the procession will take place tomorrow instead and is open to all merchants of the City.

The only restriction, according to Chairman Neil Crowley, is that floats and other entries are not to bear any political advertising and must not be of a political nature.

Entries will line up at Brighton and San Pablo Avenue and should be in position to move at 10 a. m. The parade will move south to the Berkeley line, turn and come back to Solano Avenue, then go east on Solano to Tulare Avenue. From here it will return to San Pablo and the starting point.

"The parade," repeats Crowley, "is open to all merchants in Albany. It is not limited to members of the Chamber of Commerce."

PLAN OTHER EVENTS

Spectators may witness a thrilling series of bicycle races at 10 o'clock at Key Route Boulevard and Solano. These are being presented by the Recreation Department and the Albany Cyclery.

A prize of $5 is to be given by the Chamber of Commerce in addition to the other awards.

At noon a Yo-Yo competition for boys and girls will be held in front of the Albany Theatre. Entrants, using tournament Yo-Yo's, will compete for fine awards. The winner will receive a sweater and each participant will be given a candy bar, according to George Preston of the Yo-Yo Company, in charge of the contest.

J. R. Moore of The Roberta will also present the winner with a large box of candy. To the youngster finishing second, he promises a brick of delicious Golden State ice cream.

Jack Varni, local banker, is general chairman of the week's program, being assisted by Crowley, Mrs. Minnie Lou Eakin, Mrs. Raymond and other members of the Chamber.

Dances in Oakland

Miss Shirley Krause, Albany dancer, was featured on a program Monday night in Oakland before members and guests of the Maccabee Tent of that city. The talented young lady is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Krause, 654 Santa Fe Avenue.

NOTES

BASEBALL IN MARIN

Since basketball is coming to a close, the teams are trying very hard to get in the lead. Miss McCann's room and Miss Lemmon's room are now tied. After this sport is over we will have baseball.

Every morning from 8:30 to 9 o'clock, Mr. Rudd hits flies out to the boys. We have runners to run as a batter would and are getting good practice. Every year Mr. Rudd makes up a team to play Cornell. Last year our pitcher held Cornell to two successive no-hit, no-run games.

— By Ed Lotti.

BIRD STUDY

The high fourth grade of Miss Bruce's room is studying birds. They are taking the 10 most important birds in Albany, studying their appearance and habits. The children are also making making bird books and pictures.

Miss Bruce is later going to take them on a field trip to watch the birds outdoors.

— By Donna Nichols.

MARIN SPORTS GROUP

Last Thursday the Script "M" Society elected the following officers: Phyllis Norin, president; Elfrida Arndt, vice president; Audrey Fisher, historian, and Erna Denk, secretary.

The members also attended a Junior Police dance and everyone had a good time.

Miss McCann's team is still leading in handball. The game today will decide which team wins the banner.

— By Elfrida Arndt.

HAS "JINK" DAY

Last Monday was a real "jink" day for Phyllis Norin. Arriving at school, she found the hem out of her skirt and had to go home to change it.

At noon hour another skirt got caught on a hook and was torn. It was 10 minutes to 1 and she decided to go home to change again. She arrived at school just as the last bell rang. Later the same day she also caught a cold.

— By Frances Halstenrud.

DADS FETE G. A. A.

At the monthly meeting of the Albany High Dads' Club Tuesday night, the girls from the G. A. A. were entertained. Although the girls were entertained by the Dads this entertainment was prepared by the girls under the direction of Miss Claire Robertson, physical education instructor. Many skits were put on, such as rallies, baseball and basketball skits. After the program delicious refreshments were served.

ELECT SENIOR OFFICERS

Two separate meetings were held Monday in order to elect low and high senior class officers. Those elected from the high senior class are Richard Atkinson, president; Ann Robertson, vice-president; Norma Talmadge, secretary, and Fred Chelmedos, treasurer. The low senior officers are Eric Lenzi, president; Marcella McClellan, vice-president; Yvonne Ellis, secretary, and Taka Nishi, treasurer.

The two senior classes combined, present an annual senior play this term and rehearsals for the production will start in two weeks states Miss Gray, the director.

SPEAKING CONTEST

Due to the rain last week the public speaking contest, sponsored by the Senior Honor Society, was postponed until Tuesday. Those participating in the contest were June Marshall, Betty McPherron, Bonnie Atwood, Bob Foley and Grant Thompson. By judges' decisions June Marshall was awarded a silver cup as the first prize. Betty McPherron was given a dictionary as second prize, and Bob Foley was given a dictionary as third prize. Those who acted as judges were, Professor Perstein from the University of California, Eugene Baker, principal of Marin School, and Charles Moore, principal of Albany High.

SEE ABBEY PLAYERS

Four students traveled to San Francisco Saturday, with William Woolworth English instructor, to attend a matinee performance at the Curran Theatre of the famous Irish Abbey Players. The students were Wanda Medina, Gloria Littleton, Vincensina De Biasi, and Louis Marengo. The two plays which were greatly enjoyed by the group were, "The Playboy of the Western World," and "The Rising of the Moon."

By Bill Theilacher

S. F. STATE vs. ALBANY TODAY
San Francisco State's nine will make their annual appearance on the Cougar diamond today, when they face Kelly Bryan's boys in what promises to be a swell ball game.

The Gaters have won every contest played with Albany since 1935. Last year they nosed out the Cougars, 6 to 5.

NETMEN SUFFER DEFEAT

Piedmont High School's tennis squad handed Albany its first defeat of the season last Wednesday, beating the local lads, five matches to two.

ROOSEVELT BEATS ALBANY

A triple in the fourth inning by Andrade, a Roosevelt baseballer, gave the Roughriders two runs in that inning and later served to win the game from Albany. The final score was 5-0, thus giving Albany its first defeat of the season.

Time to Retire For Housewife

The old phrase, "Time to Retire" is entirely outmoded by the new automatic electric timing devices which are now available on the 1938 gas range. It is indeed time for the housewife to retire, when she is the fortunate possessor of one of these new complete automatic clocks. Today all that the Housewife has to do is to prepare dinner and slip it into the oven. It is now a free woman, to go where she pleases and do what she pleases.

The simple process of setting a range of dials is the secret of her freedom. With automatic electric timing, the oven will go on at the right time and go off in the same way. Her dinner will be cooked to a perfect texture and hot and ready for her when she wants it.

With "measured time" or electric signal timers, she may set her clock to sound a signal when it is time to move the food from the oven.

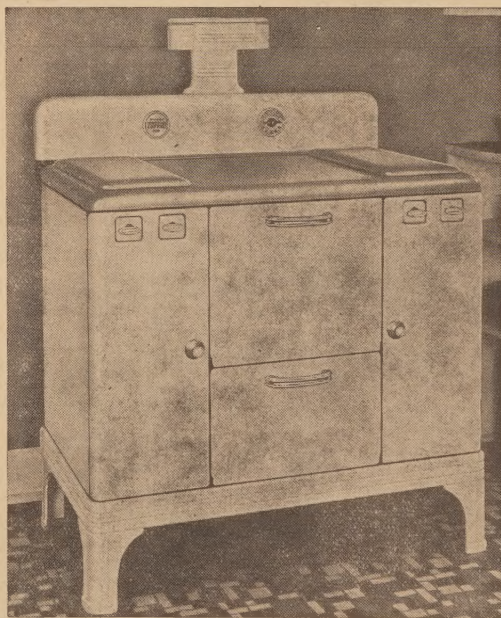

Wonderful indeed is the progress manufacturers have made in perfecting every means of convenience and economy for the modern homemaker. As she can be very happy to know these new timing devices are economical and thrifty as well as convenient for her gas bills immediately benefit their use and her budget takes a real lease on life.

Miss Margaret Heck, who recently arrived from Kansas City, Mo., is present the house guest of her cousin, Mrs. Bertha Scholz of 1328 Madison Avenue.

Save $15 on a New 1938 Gas Range! March 17-26

Step Forward and Save With a 1938

Gas Range Is Theme of Campaign

Introducing the new 1938 models in all makes of gas ranges, local dealers are joining today in the opening of a state-wide Spring Gas Range Campaign, under the sponsorship of the Gas Appliance Society of California. The Campaign will continue until Saturday, March 26.

With "step forward" as the theme, dealers are stressing the remarkable progress made in gas ranges during the past year with the addition of time and labor-saving devices such as automatic electric timing.

These new electric clocks or timers permit the housewife to be absent from the kitchen while cooking goes on. One type of clock may be set to sound a signal at the end of any specified time, calling attention to the fact that the food is done.

Another type of electric clock is fully automatic. The dial is adjusted to the time for the gas to turn on or off again. Thus, the housewife may prepare her meal in the morning, place it in the oven and set the dial, say for four o'clock in the afternoon for the gas to go on, and for six o'clock for the gas to go off. She may be away from home the entire day and return to find a delicious baked meal waiting, piping hot and done to a turn.

She is entirely freed from all oven-watching or the inconvenience of being constantly in the kitchen. A few minutes of meal planning has replaced hours of kitchen drudgery, formerly a most disturbing part of kitchen activity.

The second most important advance in gas cookery is in the addition of floodlights above the top surface of the range. These floodlights throw an even glow over the entire top surface and eliminate the strain of squinting and peering to see whether the kettle has boiled dry or the vegetables are overdone.

The general beauty of the new gas range is entirely modern and streamlined in effect. Rounded corners, low legs or bases to the floor, exquisite compact lines, topped by conveniently placed condiment sets and harmonious color combinations make these new models the most attractive ranges that have ever been on the market.

Greater efficiency and ease of operation has been one of the slogans of the manufacturers. Spacious warming ovens and storage compartments have been the answer. The new broilers, conveniently placed either high or below the oven, some of them swinging out and others adjustable, show marked improvements in efficiency. No longer can the fats smoke up the kitchen. Broiling has become a new art, smokeless and simple. Grills are made of materials which can be pre-heated, and juices are thereby immediately seared in on both sides that all the good may be retained. It goes without saying that innumerable economies are possible with the salvage of leftovers and their attractive preparation when these new grill broilers are used.

Ovens have come to the fore with heavy insulation which retain all the heat. They are further equipped with low temperature burners, thus making the use of cheaper cuts of meats not only possible but desirable. These low temperature burners in the ovens and the corresponding simmer burners for the top of the range, are a decided economy in money and food values. They deserve to be recognized as most important in the chalk up of gas range thrift.

The streamlined styling of the new gas range is a triumph of modern design. Absolute cleanliness is obtainable because of the high quality of porcelain used for the exposed surfaces as well as interiors. Ovens are fully equipped with these porcelain linings and the lower base can usually be removed for cleaning. Top burners are more and more being designed of porcelain, and every housewife knows what this means to her range, efficiency. Modern ideas of beauty have been utilized in producing the most convenient, economical and thrifty range in history.

Flood Damage Seen

First hand information on recent flood conditions in Watsonville was brought back this week by Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Lynch and daughters, La Verne and Lorraine, of 725 Key Route Boulevard.

The family visited Mrs. Lynch's sister, Mrs. Minnie Avery of Watsonville, Monday, and were shown marks of the raging waters that had invaded their hostess' house to a depth of four inches. In company with other residents of the region, Mrs. Avery is raising her home several feet to prevent future damages, they reported.

The local fireman and his family returned to this city early Tuesday morning.

Group's Return Delayed by Snow

After a heavy snow storm, which had occurred during the night, a party of 50 persons, composed largely of Albany and Berkeley Girl Scouts, awoke to find their automobiles almost covered by snow and it was necessary to put a snowplow into service before they were able to proceed on their return trip.

The party left Saturday morning at 4 o'clock for Camp Connell, located in the Calaveras Big Trees, where they spent the night. They enjoyed many winter sports including skiing and tobogganing before returning Sunday night.

Among the Albany residents who went were Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Bryant, Lila Mae Stafford, Betty Nunn, Stewart Nunn and George Cleland.

Scouts in Paper Drive

Boy Scouts of Flaming Arrow Patrol, Troop No. 46, are now holding a paper drive to raise funds for equipment, announces Charles Savio, senior assistant scoutmaster. The campaign is to last until further notice.

Residents with papers are asked to call Berkeley 8443-J or Thornwall 3815 and members of the troop, which is sponsored by the Community M. E. Church, will call to pick them up.

Mothers Meet at Marin

Future meetings of the Scouting Mothers of Troop No. 12 will take place at the Marin School, according to Mrs. W. Wilson, vice president. Meetings will be held each week until 32 equipment bags are completed. The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday. Mrs. Donald Adams will preside.

No. 2658, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month at the Albany Veterans Memorial Building.

Final arrangements were made at the meeting Tuesday night for the "candidates' whist" to be held by Leland Bergesen Post and Auxiliary in the Veterans Memorial Building on Saturday evening, March 26, at 8 o'clock. Many fine prizes are announced. Score cards are 35 cents.

On March 29, at 6:30 p. m., the Post and Auxiliary will put on a pot-luck dinner, with music, dancing and entertainment. Tickets may be secured from members.

Nomination and election of officers for the Post will take place at the first meeting in April.

A movement was started to form a Sons of Veterans Corps in this city.

Comrade O. Knutson is ill in Fairmount Hospital, it was announced. Members and friends are urged to visit him.

Honored guests at this meeting were Harold L. Burlingame, Albany School Board member and present commander of Post No. 1010; A. L. Ford, president of the Traffic Safety Commission; I. Kniffen and A. C. Brown, all past and present officers of the V. F. W.

After the meeting a splendid lunch was served by Sisters Hayhurst, Blair, Thomas and Ham, of the Auxiliary.

Church Group to Appear in Play

Plans to select a play, which will be presented at a church social sometime in the near future, were decided upon when the Young People's Society of the Grace Lutheran Church met at the home of Helmer Hanson, 621 Carmel Avenue, last Friday evening.

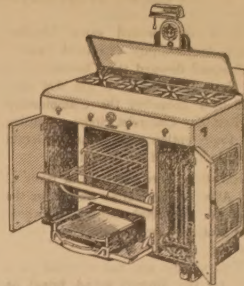

June Schiller and Doris Fardig were appointed as the committee in charge of arrangements. The former was also named as the reporter for the Walther League Bulletin.

To stimulate attendance, members were then given Walther League cards which will record their attendance throughout the year.

East Bay Motor Championship Is Won by Murphys

In a thrill-packed game Monday night, the Murphy Chevrolet basketball squad downed the Chevrolet five to the tune of 54-34, a win that gave the local hoopers the championship in East Bay Chevrolet circles, according to their enthusiastic sponsor, Gerald Murphy, head of the local firm.

Half-time score was 22-8 in favor of the Albany team. High scorers for the winners were Bob Russell, forward; Lee Mulgrew, center, and Hank Leone, forward.

This victory was the eleventh in a row for the Murphy squad, brings its average during the season to 17 out of 24.

Wednesday night in the Emeryville High School gymnasium, the Murphys will meet the Frank's College Inn team, claimants of the Emeryville title. The latter outfit has lost but one game. Time of the contest is 8 o'clock.

Manager Bill Winkenschmidt announces that his men will next play a three-game series with a five from Alameda. A victory in this set of games will give the team of the local Chevrolet dealer the championship of the smaller East Bay cities.

Mrs. Norma S. Carr Honored at Shower

Teachers from the three Albany Schools were present at the stork shower honoring Mrs. Norma Shadall Carr, which was given on Thursday afternoon, March 3, at the Marin School.

The affair was a complete surprise to Mrs. Carr, who had thought she was invited to a tea. She recently obtained a year's leave of absence after being employed as the school nurse for the past seven years.

Tonight Albany Parlor No. 260, N. D. G. W., will sponsor a card party to be given at the home of Mrs. Wemple Staples, 994 Kains Avenue.

Those present were Mrs. Richard Jorgensen, committee member; Miss Catherine Jane Bowman, troop leader; Veryl Gilbert, Nadine Armstrong, Jean Brison, Jeannie Christensen, Bonnie Attwood, Carol and Alison Lindh, and Betty Nunn.

After a blue bassinette of gifts had been presented to the honoree, the afternoon was spent at Dutch whist.

Thirty guests were present. Among them were Mrs. Frank Hays, Mrs. Russell Fields, Mrs. Hazel Larrabee, Mrs. Joseph Allington, and Mrs. Hortense Lightfoot, all of this city.

A complete line of wallpaper, paints and glass is also on sale at the store, 5405 College Avenue. Also maintained is a branch office at 2067 Bonar Street.

Schaefer is a pioneer resident of this district, having lived at 543 Norvell Street, El Cerrito, for the past 31 years. His son, Lester F. Schaefer, is associated with him in the business.
